Thomas Hicks lived on the South Fork of the Potomac River in Virginia. He was an overseer of roads and a Captain in the Hardy County Militia in 1786. He owned 100 Acres of land in Hardy Co. in 1786. He had been granted and purchased other land which he sold in 1795 and may have moved away from Virginia at that time. He was listed in the 1810 census of Jessamine Co. Ky. and the 1820 census of Shelby County, Kentucky. Elizabeth Morral is listed as a daughter of Samuel and Mary (Davis) Morral. Samuel was a planter in Amherst Co. Virginia - bought land in Pendleton Co. Va. near Deer Run Post Office in 1763. Samuel and Mary were married in 1757. Elizabeth is said to have lived with her son Morral in Montgomery Co., Indiana in her later years - census records of 1830 tend to confirm this.

John Hicks was born in Hampshire County Virginia (which became Hardy Co. in 1786) and apparently came with his parents to Kentucky where he married Elizabeth in 1804. They bought land in Shelby County, Kentucky where they lived until his death in late 1821 or January 1822.

Elizabeth Sodowskey (Sandusky) was the daughter of John and granddaughter of Samuel and great granddaughter of Jacob Sodowskey who migrated to this country early in the 17th century (1700's). One of Jacob's sons was at the surrender of Cornvalis and came to Kentucky with a brother and established Sandusky Station in Jessamine Co. This Sandusky is said to have been the first man to go down the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers to New Orleans and to sail around to his Virginia home. Elizabeth remarried after John died to Muhlenberg Proctor and came to Indiana before 1827. She lived with her son William in her later years, who had married her step-daughter, Lucinda Proctor. Another step-daughter, America Proctor, married John A. Hicks - a cousin of son William Hicks.

Jefferson Hicks as an orphan, after his father died, was apprenticed as a blacksmith. Then his step father, Muhlenberg Proctor was appointed his guardian and apparently the Proctor family came to Indiana where "Jeff" married Lucinda Ragsdale. Jeff sold his 1/6 interest in his father's land and the transaction was consummated through a Justice of the Peace in Montgomery County, Indiana and was recorded by the Shelby County Clerk at Shelbyville, Kentucky.
