

DIES SUDDENLY

Emma Blackwell, Valley
Pioneer, Expires (APR 11
Puyallup)

PUYALLUP — Mrs. Emma V. Blackwell, 81, of West Stewart ave. and a resident of Puyallup and the state for the past 32 years, died suddenly Thursday evening while visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Allen Scott, near Shelton. She was the widow of James William Blackwell.

Mrs. Blackwell was a member of the Baptist church and Schuyler Colfax lodge of Rebekahs No. 14. Surviving are one son, L. S. Blackwell of Puyallup; a brother, W. L. Hill of Tacoma; four sisters, Mrs. Walter Scott and Mrs. Catherine Barnes of Puyallup, Mrs. James Seeley of Seattle and Mrs. L. M. Lynch of Torrence, Calif., and two grandchildren. Hill's will announce funeral arrangements.