Family of the Starting Person

Family of Henry Walker and Eleanor _____

1. Henry Walker was born on Friday, October 08, 1756, in Prince Edward Co., Virginia. He died in Woodford Co., Kentucky, in July 1829 at the age of 72.

Recorded in County Clerks Office, Versailles KY

In the name of God, Amen: I Henry Walker of Woodford County and State of Kentucky being old and infirm but of proper mind and memory Thanks be given to God. Calling to mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testemony. That is to say principally and first of all I give and recommend my soul to God that gave it and my body recommended to the earth to be buried in a decent Christian manner and touching such worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to help me with in this life. I give devise and dispose of in the following manner and form.

First, I give and bequeath unto seven of my beloved children (Namely) Daniel Walker, Richard Y. Walker, William Walker or heir, Pricilla Hazzard, Phoebe S. Eaton, Poly Graves and Eleanor Walker, my young daughter the plantation or lot of ground on which I now live, including the whole survey and containing 126 acres to be by them freely possessed and enjoyed.

Secondly, I give and bequeath to my son Travis Walker one wagon and one rifle gun which he has now in possession to be by him freely possessed and enjoyed.

Thirdly, I give to my son James Walker the tract of land on which he now lives in Henry County, estimated at 300 dollars to be by him and his heirs possessed and enjoyed.

Fourthly, I give to my grandson John Eaton one bed and furniture to be by him freely possessed and enjoyed.

Fifth, I give and bequeath to my beloved daughter Eleanor Walker all my stock of horses, cattle and sheep together with all my household and kitchen furniture except the bed aforesaid which I give to John Eaton.

Sixth, my will and desire is that the tract of land given to James Walker and estimated at $300, shall be less than equal part with the other seven that such deficiency may be made up to the aforesaid James out of the legacy before given to the other seven children above named.

Seventh, I do hereby constitute and appoint Jeremiah Wilson, John Wilson, Richard Y. Walker and James Walker executors of this my last will and testament hereby revoking all others and former wills and testaments by me heretofore do make and ratifying and confirming this and no other. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 14th day of August 1820.

Signed in the presence of Wieatt Arnold, Wm. Dale and James C. Robert.

Codicil:

Be it known that time and circumstances since the above will was wrote made it expedient that some alterations in some of the articles should be made.

In Article the first, My son William deceased his heir, I want his Wm's daughter Parnelia and also observe that I failed in setting aside a deed that I had sometime before executed to my son Travis Walker of my who plantation the price he has to pay is $1200, then in that case the land to be left to those mentioned in article first of my will. What I give to my son Travis as above mentioned as his part mentioned in the second Article of my Will respecting the wagon and gun is all the portion I intend for him which he has received and as for Article third of the will I decide that the land whereon he now lives, given to him in Henry County, KY is a sufficient portion for him that is my son James Walker, as for Article fourth John Eaton has received the bed sometime since, also the Fifth Article my daughter Eleanor has received the articles mentioned.

Observe this decision only repeats what is contained in the fifth article.

The sixth Article of my Will I do decide to be useless for the Seventh I here constitute my son in law Martin Hazzard and my son Daniel Walker and John Eaton and Mason Morris and my son in law James Graves and my son Richard Walker and my daughter Eleanor to be execute my will with the above amendments.

James

From Henry County, Kentucky, 1798-1995: A History of our Heritage, reported from the obituary of William Henry Walker:

During the war of 1812 to 1815, James Walker enlisted and came to Indiana on a campaign against the Indians. Passing through the western part of this county (Hamilton) and being favorably impressed with the appearance of the county, he returned soon after, bringing with him a small quantity of bluegrass seed which he scattered on a small open spot in the woods. Returning again a few years later, he found the bluegrass had taken root, grown and spread to quite a patch. Finding that bluegrass would grow here impressed him so favorably that that he entered several hundred acres of land under the Homestead Act about 2-1/2 miles north of Jolietville, giving a portion to each of his three sons, William Henry, Horace and Theodore. The former, being he was married, came out and commenced to make a home, but not liking the mosquitoes and ague, which seemed to hold supremacy, went back to Kentucky. The other two came out and made their homes on some of the land mentioned above.

From a note by Mrs. Arthur (Walker) Stewart:

James Walker came from Culpepper Co VA. He rode horseback and the family still has his little horsehide covered trunk in which he brought his clothes. Some descendants still have the trunk. He is buried on some of his own land on a farm outside of New Castle, Henry County, Kentucky. During the War of 1812 James Walker enlisted and went to Indiana on a campaign against the Indians. Afterwards he returned to Indiana only long enough to plant some bluegrass seed. Later when he found that it did well, he took several hundred acres north of Jolietville Indiana and gave a part to each of his 3 sons. William Henry Walker did not like the mosquitoes and went back to Kentucky. The other two sons Horace and Theodore stayed in Indiana..

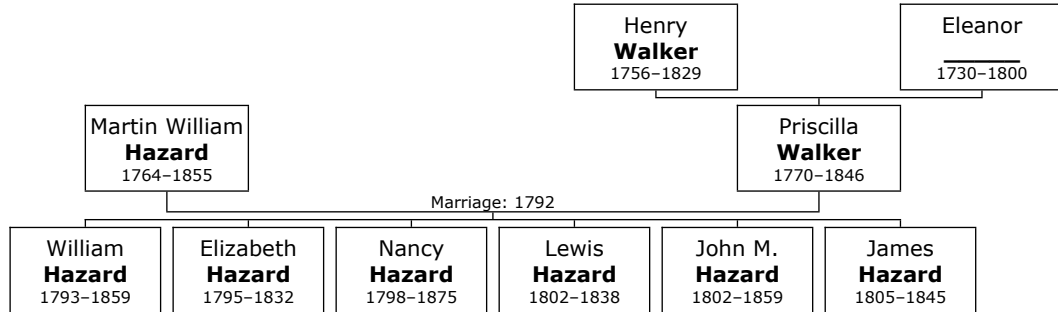

The parents and grandparents of James Walker listed here were taken from the research of others. At this point, they are considered by me as a possibility but far from confirmed.

James Walker

From Henry County, Kentucky, 1798-1995: A History of our Heritage, reported from the obituary of William Henry Walker:

During the war of 1812 to 1815, James Walker enlisted and came to Indiana on a campaign against the Indians. Passing through the western part of this county (Hamilton) and being favorably impressed with the appearance of the county, he returned soon after, bringing with him a small quantity of bluegrass seed which he scattered on a small open spot in the woods. Returning again a few years later, he found the bluegrass had taken root, grown and spread to quite a patch. Finding that bluegrass would grow here impressed him so favorably that that he entered several hundred acres of land under the Homestead Act about 2-1/2 miles north of Jolietville, giving a portion to each of his three sons, William Henry, Horace and Theodore. The former, being he was married, came out and commenced to make a home, but not liking the mosquitoes and ague, which seemed to hold supremacy, went back to Kentucky. The other two came out and made their homes on some of the land mentioned above.

From a note by Mrs. Arthur (Walker) Stewart:

James Walker came from Culpepper Co VA. He rode horseback and the family still has his little horsehide covered trunk in which he brought his clothes. Some descendants still have the trunk. He is buried on some of his own land on a farm outside of New Castle, Henry County, Kentucky. During the War of 1812 James Walker enlisted and went to Indiana on a campaign against the Indians. Afterwards he returned to Indiana only long enough to plant some bluegrass seed. Later when he found that it did well, he took several hundred acres north of Jolietville Indiana and gave a part to each of his 3 sons. William Henry Walker did not like the mosquitoes and went back to Kentucky. The other two sons Horace and Theodore stayed in Indiana..

The parents and grandparents of James Walker listed here were taken from the research of others. At this point, they are considered by me as a possibility but far from confirmed.

One of the saddest deaths it has been our duty to note for a long time is that of Mr. Horace Hill, which occurred at his home near Smithfield on last Saturday morning, after a brief illness of necrosis of the bowels. A specialist, from Louisville, assisted Dr. John Nuttall, performed an operation, but his life could not be saved.

Mr. Hill was well known throughout the county, and had many friends who will regret to learn of his untimely death. He was a successful farmer and stock raiser, and stood high both in social and financial circles. He leaves a wife, who was a Miss Lamaster, sister of our countyman, Z. H. June 13, 1919

Weldon and Marshall Hill, who have been keeping "bach" on their farm 2-1/2 miles West of New Castle are no longer living in a womanless home. Tuesday morning when A. Sid Morgan and other neighbors of the Hill brothers look toward their home they were surprised to see a young lady on the premises stirring hither and thither and looking the mistress of all she surveyed. It developed that Weldon Hill, the elder of the two boys, had been married the evening before at 8 o'clock in La Grange without pomp and unusual ceremony, and some time between the two days they had rounded in at the Hill homestead and were already set up for business and each performing his or her part properly in their new and sacred relation.

The bride is none other than Miss Bernice Harlan, daughter of those clever persons, Mr. and Mrs. Ed L. Harlan of La Grange former residents of New Castle Kentucky. The bride is a business like and sensible girl, who for five years has been associated with Ballard Brothers in a clerical capacity. She is a girl of comeliness and personal worth, and her husband should be overwhelmed with congratulations by reason of his good fortune in making good his claim upon her heart.

The Hill brothers are clever boys. They have a nice new home nearing completion with all arrangements nearly completed for the incoming governess. Why wait, thought Weldon, she might as well come in now and have the satisfaction of ordering the details. So the wedding was speeded up some. The manner in which the whole transaction was effectuated evidences the good common sense of the parties. The groom is a son of Pat Hill former clerk of Henry County now deceased. [This is incorrect. William Weldon Hill's father was Horace William Hill.] His mother is the wife of J. B. Pyles of La Grange.

Oldham Era, La Grange Kentucky, article.
June 13, 1919

Miss Bernice Harlan and Mr. Weldon Hill were married Monday evening at 8 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Harlan. The house was decorated in roses, sweet peas, ferns and honey suckles. Miss Ruby Starks was maid of honor, and was dressed in a handsome blue chiffon, carrying a bunch of sweet peas. The bride wore a wistaria greogette crepe over crepe de chine. Mr. Jesse Harlan was groomsman. It was a pretty home wedding, none but the immediate family being present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Frank Richardson, of the Methodist Church. The bridal couple left immediately after the ceremony for their home near Smithfield. Both the young people are favorites here and received many handsome, also useful presents of silverware, furniture, cut glass, household linens, etc. She was the daughter of Edgar Leslie Harlan and Margaret Beall Flood.

Horace Edgar "Ed" Hill was born near Smithfield, Kentucky. He was born in what we used as the dining room in the house his father built. The house was built to by his father and his father's brother, Marshall Tyler Hill, known as Rip, before his father and mother were married. Ed was fifth generation to live and farm on that the land. The farm he grew up on was part of the original farm purchased by his great great grandmother, Clarissa (Holloway) Hill when she move to Henry County from Virginia after a short stop in Fayette County, Kentucky.

Horace Edgar was married first to Jane Pardo and had one son, Forest Weldon Hill. They divorced when Forest Weldon, known as Mickey, was very young. After his divorce, he married Betty Jean Washburn, from Carroll County, Kentucky, in 1952. Ed and Betty Jean married shortly after Ed's mother, Bernice (Harlan) Hill, died of the breast cancer. They had two children Horace Edgar Hill, Jr. and Bernice Hill Southworth. Three of his four grandchildren (Elizabeth Hill, Stephen Hill and Wesley Southworth) were born before his death. His fourth grandchild, Hagan Southworth, was born less than a year after he died.

He farmed almost his entire life, except for a short period of time when he worked at the Bourbon Stockyards in Louisville, Kentucky during the late 1950's. He had a disagreement with his father, William Weldon Hill, concerning the sharing of income from the farm. Ultimately his father gave in and he returned to the farm. Later, with the agreement of his brother, Horace Edgar bought the farm from his father. In the meantime, he also bought another farm that adjoined his father's farm on the back.

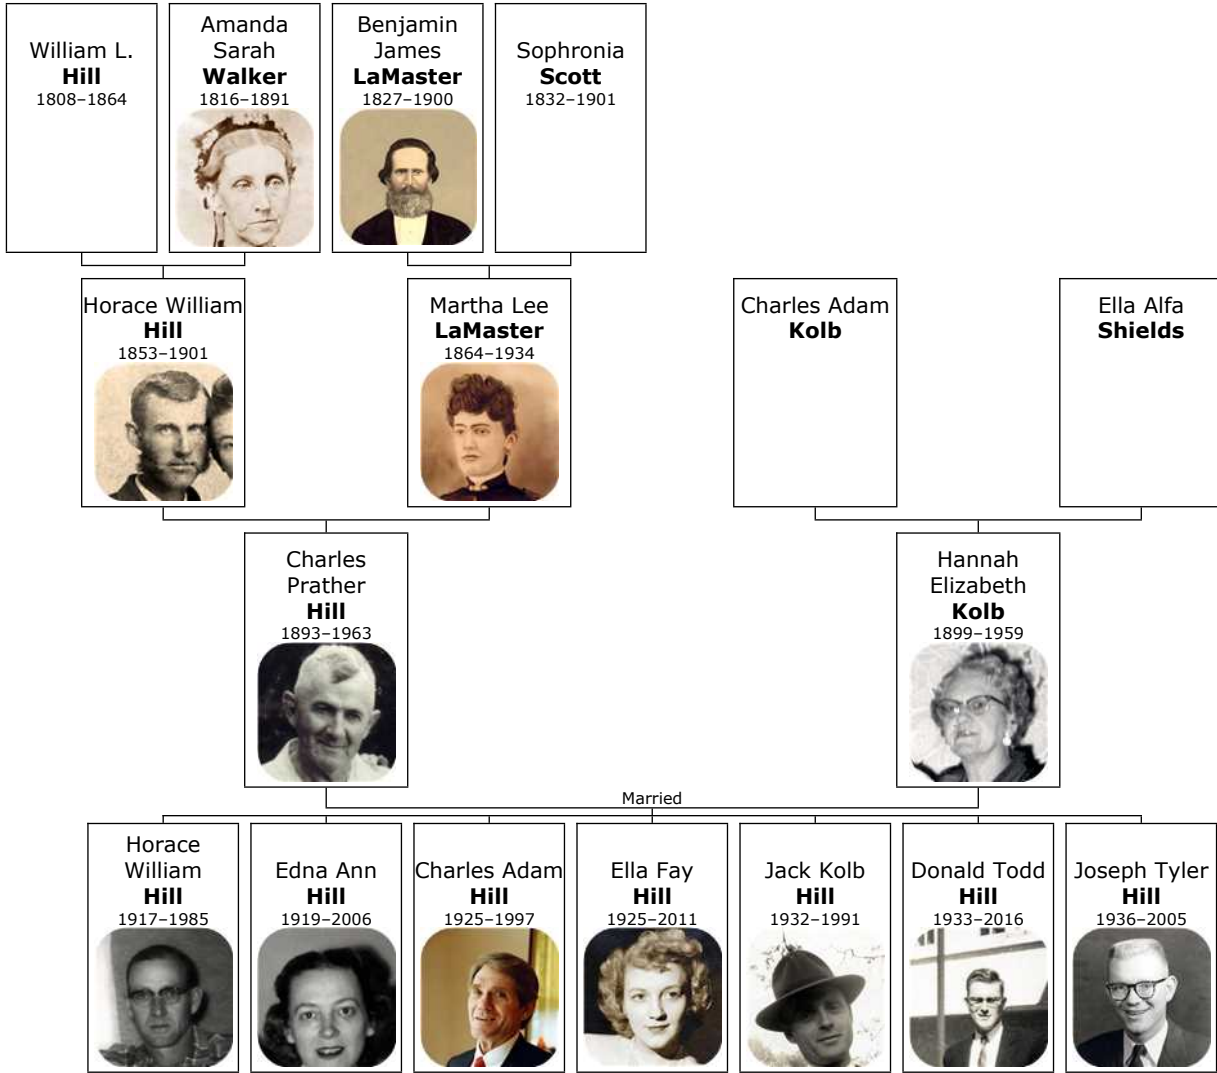

Ed served as a magistrate in Henry County for many years. He won his first election after a recount of the votes. He spent most of his years as magistrate fighting to enact zoning laws in the county. He died while still in office and after zoning was passed.

Ed died at age 66 at Jewish Hospital in Louisville, Kentucky in 1990 during his second coronary bypass operation. His first coronary bypass was approximately 10 years earlier.

Raymond

The following was read at the funeral of Raymond Hill by his nephew, James Hill. It was written by his brother, Roland:

My brother, Raymond, and I were identical twins in the eighth grade at John G. Carlisle School in Covington, Ky. At the time we were 13 years old. During an interlude in 'The Pirate's Daughter,' a musical play one step below high school musicals today, the teacher selected me and my brother, Raymond, to sing a song entitled, 'Two Little Magpies.' It went like this:

Two little magpies set upon a rail.

Before long they were fighting each other.
So they fought and they fit and they scratched and they bit Until all that was left upon the rail was the beak of one of the little magpies and the other little magpie's tail.
Before singing this song, we had our faces blacked. We sang this song in our church, Grace Reformed Church, during the Christmas season. Earlier we sang this song from the stage of the Holmes High School auditorium where we went to high school in Covington."

"My brother Raymond, was born left handed. Although we played together, I never knew he was left handed until I was seven or eight years old. The teachers in school those days were training him to write right-handed. He made the conversion but not like a left-hander like President Obama writes or an aunt of mine wrote. I never gave it a thought but I think it made him stronger mentally and physically
When playing ball, his swing at the ball was not as smooth as a typical right-hander. It lacked the power of a left-hander.

The following was written and read at Raymond's funeral by his nephew, James:

Raymond Julius Hill, Jr. and his twin brother, Roland George Hill, were born December 15, 1914 in Algiers (now New Orleans), Louisiana. They were the sons of Raymond Julius Hill, Sr. and Lydia Louise Wiebelt Hill. The twins were baptized in the Episcopal Church in Algiers. The family moved to Covington, Kentucky about 1920.

The brothers attended Third District Elementary School in Covington. The family bought a house in the 1920's at 805 Philadelphia Street in Covington, just three blocks from the school, and remained there until Raymond, Sr.'s death in 1962. Raymond and Roland attended John G. Carlisle Junior High School in 1927 and 1928. The family attended Grace Reformed Church (later United Church of Christ) and the boys were confirmed into membership on April 1, 1928 by Rev. William E. Miller, Grace Church's longest serving pastor. The twins went on to attend Holmes High School in Covington from 1929 to their graduation on June 13, 1933.
Roland recalls that their only graduation present was a new suit for each one, as this was during the Great Depression.

Raymond and Roland both attended two years of night school back at Holmes High School, taking business courses in typing, bookkeeping and shorthand. This additional education would serve them well in future employment with the federal government. After high school, Raymond began working for the Covington Mutual Fire Insurance Company. He later worked for the U. S. Truss Company in Cincinnati. Roland recalls that Raymond worked as Christmas seasonal help with him at the Cincinnati Post Office in December, 1938.

It was around this time that Raymond became a member of the Seventh Day Adventist Church, either North Star SDA Church on Levassor Avenue in Covington or the Seventh Day Adventist Church in Taylor Mill.

Raymond was hired by the federal government in 1940 or 1941 to work for the General Accounting Office in Washington, DC prompting his move from Kentucky to Maryland. He later worked for the General Services Administration and had a career of 40 years with the federal government.

Wilborn will celebrate 84th birthday as grand marshal

LA GRANGE - Raymond Wilborn will celebrate his 84th birthday on Saturday in a special way -- as grand marshal of the Oldham County Day parade.

Some 23 years ago, when the Project Guild initiated Oldham County Day, Wilborn, who was mayor of La Grange, led its first parade.

"We didn't know about calling him 'grand marshal' then, but that's what he was," said guild member Nancy Grass.

Riding beside him in the parade will be his wife, Irene. "Somebody asked me where I'd be if I hadn't married Irene. I told him: 'the penitentiary,'" Wilborn joked.

Guild member Ann Brown, who informed 'Wilborn of his being selected, said, "The Project Guild is so honored to have Raymond Wilborn as grand marshal for Oldham County Day. He is the most gracious, kind, caring humanitarian that I've ever known," she said, adding, "Raymond gives so much to other people. People don't know what he does for Oldham County. He keeps it to himself. He would give you the shirt off his back, and wouldn't have another one to put on."

"Is that the man I'm married to?" quipped Wilborn's wife, Irene, who shares a sense of humor with her husband, and a devotion to helping others.

The couple was honored last year by the Oldham County Chamber of Commerce for a lifetime of contributions to the community. Through the years, the Wilborns have contributed to the La Grange United Methodist Church, Westport Methodist Church, Westport Baptist Church, and Mt. Tabor United Methodist Church in Centerfield. They helped with the rebuilding of the First Baptist Church in La Grange after it was destroyed by fire. They always send a check to the victims of house fires.

They continue to lend strong financial support to the John T. Walsh Park, helping with various needs there, including the installation of restrooms. Of the park, Wilborn said, "I always wanted to get something in Oldham County for the kids."

The Wilborns also have assisted the Duerson-Oldham County library, WHAS Crusade for Children, Cedar Lake Lodge, Boy Scouts, the Oldham County Fair Board, the American Red Cross and The Humane Society of Oldham County, Inc.

They purchased the town clock on Main Street. That gift inspired this year's Oldham County Day parade theme: "Remember The Time . . ."

For most of his life, Wilborn, a native of Oldham County, was a farmer, managing some farms on U.S. 42 and his own two of which were in Shelby County. He had orchards, raised chickens, dairy cattle and tobacco.

The Wilborns moved to La Grange in 1967, and in 1968, Wilborn was appointed to the LaGrange City Council, to fill out an unexpired term. Next, he was elected mayor, running without opposition the first time. During the following campaign, Tom Moock ran against Wilborn. 'I voted for him, and told Irene to vote for him, too," Wilborn said. The day of the election, County Clerk Martha Davis called for Wilborn to come up to the courthouse because he was winning. "I can't help it, I'm sorry," Wilborn told her, explaining that he had voted for Tom. Wilborn remained as the city's mayor until 1978.

In addition to: having served two terms as mayor of La Grange, Wilborn twice was president of the North Oldham Lions Club, and he was on the board of the former Mallory-Taylor Hospital.

Of all his achievements, Wilborn says he is proudest and most thankful that he can contribute to worthwhile causes.

Was he surprised to have been named grand marshal? "Oh, my goodness. I never dreamed such a thing. It's a great honor, don't you know?" he said.

Wilborn's long-time friendship with Oldham County Judge/executive John Black, also a former LaGrange mayor, is well-known. The two enjoy a mutual respect and indulge in much good natured ribbing. Black's nickname for Wilborn is "Windbag," "Because I talk so much, I reckon," Wilborn said.

Wilborn understood that his friend planned to have a few things to say about him at the Project Guild's luncheon honoring the grand marshal, which was held on Tuesday at Immaculate Conception Church. But, as Black now knows, Wilborn wouldn't be upstaged or at a loss for words. According to the man himself, he prepared a few remarks of his own.

[Source: Henry County Local October 17, 1990

Horace Edgar "Ed" Hill was born near Smithfield, Kentucky. He was born in what we used as the dining room in the house his father built. The house was built to by his father and his father's brother, Marshall Tyler Hill, known as Rip, before his father and mother were married. Ed was fifth generation to live and farm on that the land. The farm he grew up on was part of the original farm purchased by his great great grandmother, Clarissa (Holloway) Hill when she move to Henry County from Virginia after a short stop in Fayette County, Kentucky.

Horace Edgar was married first to Jane Pardo and had one son, Forest Weldon Hill. They divorced when Forest Weldon, known as Mickey, was very young. After his divorce, he married Betty Jean Washburn, from Carroll County, Kentucky, in 1952. Ed and Betty Jean married shortly after Ed's mother, Bernice (Harlan) Hill, died of the breast cancer. They had two children Horace Edgar Hill, Jr. and Bernice Hill Southworth. Three of his four grandchildren (Elizabeth Hill, Stephen Hill and Wesley Southworth) were born before his death. His forth grandchild, Hagan Southworth, was born less than a year after he died.

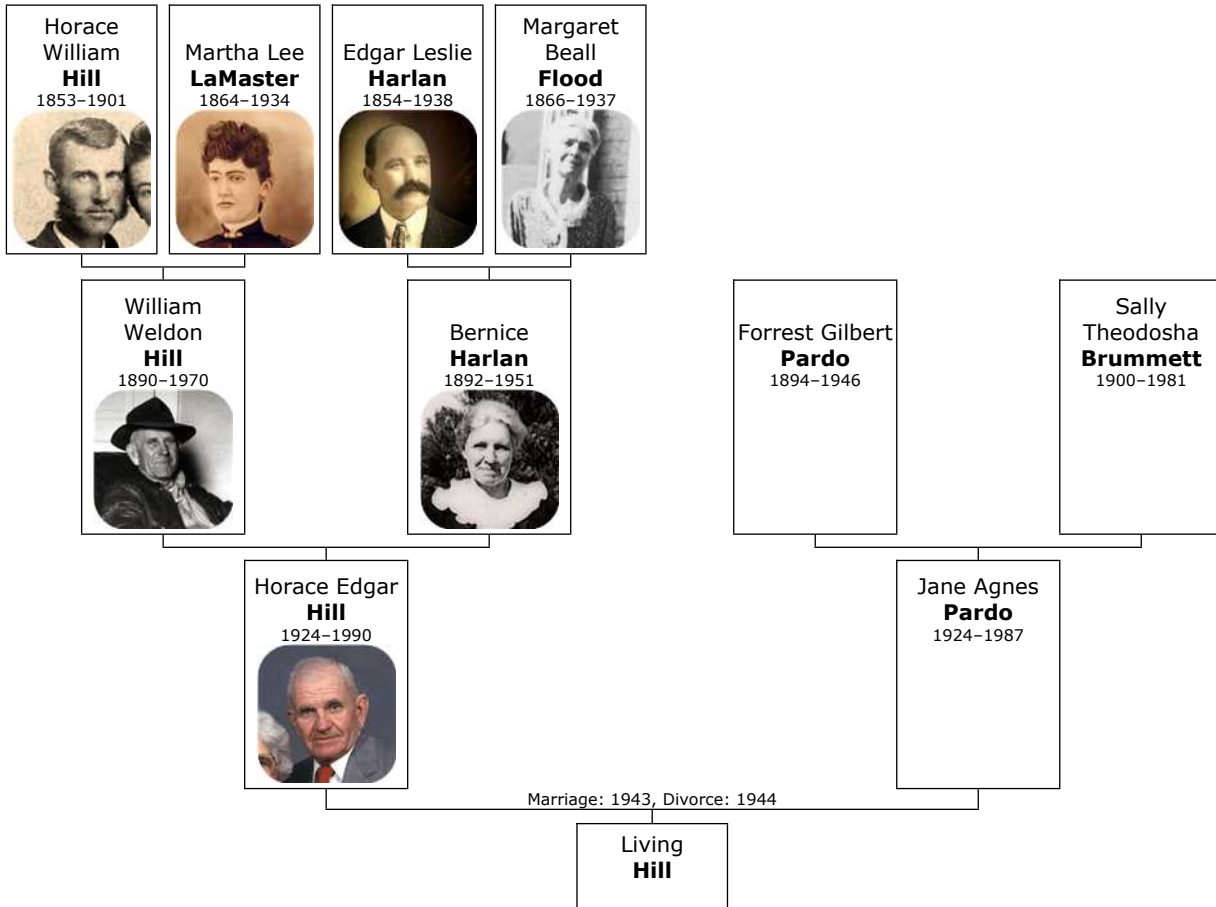

He farmed almost his entire life, except for a short period of time when he worked at the Bourbon Stockyards in Louisville, Kentucky during the late 1950's. He had a disagreement with his father, William Weldon Hill, concerning the sharing of income from the farm. Ultimately his father gave in and he returned to the farm. Later, with the agreement of his brother, Horace Edgar bought the farm from his father. In the meantime, he also bought another farm that adjoined his father's farm on the back.

Ed served as a magistrate in Henry County for many years. He won his first election after a recount of the votes. He spent most of his years as magistrate fighting to enact zoning laws in the county. He died while still in office and after zoning was passed.

Ed died at age 66 at Jewish Hospital in Louisville, Kentucky in 1990 during his second coronary bypass operation. His first coronary bypass was approximately 10 years earlier.

183. Raymond Julius Hill Jr. was born on Tuesday, December 15, 1914, in Algiers, New Orleans Parish, Louisiana. He was the son of Raymond Julius Hill (95) and Lydia Louise Wiebelt.

Raymond Julius Hill Jr.

Raymond Julius died in Takoma Park, Montgomery, Maryland, USA, on March 29, 2009, at the age of 94.

The following was read at the funeral of Raymond Hill by his nephew, James Hill. It was written by his brother, Roland:

My brother, Raymond, and I were identical twins in the eighth grade at John G. Carlisle School in Covington, Ky. At the time we were 13 years old. During an interlude in 'The Pirate's Daughter,' a musical play one step below high school musicals today, the teacher selected me and my brother, Raymond, to sing a song entitled, 'Two Little Magpies.' It went like this:

Two little magpies set upon a rail.

Before long they were fighting each other.

So they fought and they fit and they scratched and they bit

Until all that was left upon the rail was the beak of one of the little magpies and the other little magpie's tail.

Before singing this song, we had our faces blacked. We sang this song in our church, Grace Reformed Church, during the Christmas season.

Earlier we sang this song from the stage of the Holmes High School auditorium where we went to high school in Covington."

"My brother Raymond, was born left handed. Although we played together, I never knew he was left handed until I was seven or eight years old. The teachers in school those days were training him to write right-handed. He made the conversion but not like a left-hander like President Obama writes or an aunt of mine wrote. I never gave it a thought but I think it made him stronger mentally and physically When playing ball, his swing at the ball was not as smooth as a typical right-hander. It lacked the power of a left-hander.

The following was written and read at Raymond's funeral by his nephew, James:

Raymond Julius Hill, Jr. and his twin brother, Roland George Hill, were born December 15, 1914 in Algiers (now New Orleans), Louisiana. They were the sons of Raymond Julius Hill, Sr. and Lydia Louise Wiebelt Hill. The twins were baptized in the Episcopal Church in Algiers. The family moved to Covington, Kentucky about 1920.

The brothers attended Third District Elementary School in Covington. The family bought a house in the 1920's at 805 Philadelphia Street in Covington, just three blocks from the school, and remained there until Raymond, Sr.'s death in 1962. Raymond and Roland attended John G. Carlisle Junior High School in 1927 and 1928. The family attended Grace Reformed Church (later United Church of Christ) and the boys were confirmed into membership on April 1, 1928 by Rev. William E. Miller, Grace Church's longest serving pastor. The twins went on to attend Holmes High School in Covington from 1929 to their graduation on June 13, 1933. Roland recalls that their only graduation present was a new suit for each one, as this was during the Great Depression.

Raymond and Roland both attended two years of night school back at Holmes High School, taking business courses in typing, bookkeeping and shorthand. This additional education would serve them well in future employment with the federal government. After high school, Raymond began working for the Covington Mutual Fire Insurance Company. He later worked for the U. S. Truss Company in Cincinnati. Roland recalls that Raymond worked as Christmas seasonal help with him at the Cincinnati Post Office in December, 1938.

It was around this time that Raymond became a member of the Seventh Day Adventist Church, either North Star SDA Church on Levassor Avenue in Covington or the Seventh Day Adventist Church in Taylor Mill.

Raymond was hired by the federal government in 1940 or 1941 to work for the General Accounting Office in Washington, DC prompting his move from Kentucky to Maryland. He later worked for the General Services Administration and had a career of 40 years with the federal government.
